lews and Views of Interest to the Women Readers of The Herald Lucile CANGERON is Bowles Sayre, who spent the is at the White House, left yes-for Cambridge, Mass, Mrs. and the children will remain resident and Mrs. Wilson a few ow a captain in the Medical Corps and is a medical in-in the Bellevue Hospital in ay morning Gen. Rachitch.

witch and Capt. Jovitch e military members of the called upon Brig. Gen. and Brig. Gen. McLaughlin War Department. rday afternoon Dr. Vesnitch guest at a luncheon

Capt. Perry Belmont gave. Nenadovitch and Capt. Jovitch-vill dine with Mr. and Mrs. Almembers of the mission ck this evening. This aft-

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale Mcentertained a large company at er last night, followed by a dance tertained at dinner last evening at the Chevy Chase Club before the ub dance, in compliment to their

of forty-six covers of her debutante daughter, Abigail Harvey, Miss Ficklen, Miss Jean Rayner, ary Hill, Miss Hardesty, Miss Walker, Miss Anne Gordon, ss Margaret Deeble, Miss Agnes Teresa James, Tucker, Miss Elizabeth Hills, Margaret Langfitt Smith, Miss Davis, Miss Josephine Broome genia Holcombe, Miss Ruth

t, Murry Edwards, Mr. Reardon, Drury, Mr. Pickford, Nevitt Francis Hill, William Bache, ard Bloch, Gwynn Rust, Archie er, Lieut, Averill, Lieut, James Mary Wright, daughter of pe informally this afternoon at residence in New Hampshire ie, when she will be assisted in ling by her daughter, Miss Anna

she was to have given this g for Miss Hamlin, and Mrs. Waiter Wells enter-d at dinner last evening at the ters, Miss Elizabeth Wiley and Mis Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells enter-ined at dinner last evening at the hevy Chase Club.

Col Oliver Edwards, U. S. A., who, sent her debutante daughter, Miss Cecelia McCallum.

Mrs. Edwards, returned to an Antonio, where he is stationed esterday. Mrs. Edwards and the

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley were

GASAL FLATERET

Net Contents 15 Fluid Drag

900 DROPS

ALGOHOL-3 PER GENT.

AVegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food by Regula-

INFANTS CHILDREN

Thereby Promoting Digesti

Cheerfulness and Rest Conta neither Opium, Morphine no Mineral, NOT NARGOTIC

Recipe of Old Dr. SAMOEL PROJECT

A helpful Remedy for Instipation and Diarrho

Loss of SLEEP suffing therefrom in Infanc

PacSimile Signature of

Clat H. Hateters

THE GENTAUR GON NEW YORK.

Exact Copy of Wrappe

35 Dases - 35 CENTS

ing the Stomachs and Box

enry Butler afternoon according to her custom on New Year Day. Mr. and Mrs. Bradent to Dr. ley will go to New York on January other mem-

The Italian Ambassador and Countthe passing of the old year.

Mrs. Butter are very much id in the Serbian Mission and concerns Serbia. Mrs. Butter ifrman of the Serbian Relief tallan consultations of the Serbian Butwith the Red Cross in Serbia.

We a captain in the Medical

The Secretary of the Navy, Joseor in the Bellevue Hospital in fork.

The Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, is making his annual fork in the evenin Dr. Vesnitch informally with Maj. and Mrs.

Brown Scott.

The Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, is making his annual phus Daniels, is making his annual in the maje and will return to Washington at the end of the week, Mr. Daniels always visits his mother on the Sunday between Christmas and New Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann enter tained at an informal dance last evening. Supper was served at mid-night, and breakfast followed at the close of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell Graef gave a dance last evening for their young daughter, Miss Olive Graef.

The engagement of Miss Louise Robins, jr., U. S. N. R., was an-nounced in New York yesterday. nounced in New York yesterday.
Miss Cogswell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Rensselaer
Cogswell, and is the first debutante of New York to become engaged.
Ensign Robins is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robins, of Saddle Rock House, Stamford, Conn., and New York. The members of the Congres sional Club will keep open house this afternoon from 4 to 7. In the evening there will be a dance from 7 to 11 for the members of the club, when the following ladies will constitute the floor commit-tee: Mrs. Thomas S. Crago, Mrs. Martin Morrison, Mrs. Henry Wood-yard, Mrs. Alvin Barclay, Mrs. Joseph Byers, Mrs. Joe Henry Eagle, Mrs. Jouett Shouse, Mrs. Charles Caldwell, Mrs. Edward Robbins and Mrs. Bertram Snell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Coville announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine, to Lieut. Chester A. Woodburn, U. S. R. C. Lieut. Woodburn graduated from Cornell in 1917 and received his commis sion at Plattsburgh last summer and is now attached to the field ar

One of the most interesting of the war weddings will be that of Miss Martha Marquart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marquart, of Spring-field, Ohio, and Lieut. Henry Sloan Austin, U. S. M. C., son of James S. Austin, of Rocky Crest, And New Year's number of Free Poland, more, tomororw evening at the home of the bride's parents, at of America, of which I. J. Paderew-Springfield. The bridegroom's ki is a dominant figure. brother, Dr. J. Harold Austin, of Although Poland is now occupied by the Rockefeller Institute, New York, will act as best man. After a short wedding journey, Lieut, and Mrs. Austin will live in Washington. Among the guests who will leave today to attend the weding are Mr. Austin's cousin, Mrs. Henry are Mr. Austin's cousin, Mrs. Hour, Wiley, wife of Capt. Wiley, U. S. Wiley, wife of Capt. wiley, U. S.

Mrs. Sherman McCallum will give advances in the Polish nationalism movement during the past year.

Mrs. Edwards and the remain here a few days at her apartments at the Connecti-Miss Nataline Dulles, who is spends the holidays with her parents at the Connecticut yesterday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Mary Duncan Gibson. Miss Sybil Fletcher and her daughter, Miss Theresa James. Miss James will return to Bryn-Mawr tomorrow.

and Mrs. Edson Bradley were at a large dinner last evening. ty-first street, have taken until June the historic mansion in Georgetown

Mothers Know That

Genuine Castoria

Use

For Over

Thirty Years

Always

Bears the Signature

of

No. 2000 Prospect avenue, which was built in 1785, by Benjamin Stoddert, the first Secretary of the Navy. It was subsequently the residence of Gen. John Mason, of Analostan Island, in the Potomac River, of Gen. Washington's nephew, Wm. Augustine Washington's nephew, Wm. Augustine Washington, of Martineaus, Minister from The Netherlands, and later of the Mackall, Pairo and Kidwell fambles. Behind the house, facing the south, and commanding a view of the river, is a charming old terraced such, and commanding a view of the garden, famous for its ivy and its hedges of boxwood.

First Night at Theater Lat Theater Later La

Mrs. Breckenridge Long, wife of the Third Assistant Secretary of State, will be at home this afternoon.

HOROSCOPE

to encourage false hopes and under the sway of this planet, which so strongly affects the subliminal mind, it is very easy to be deceived. All who hope to prosper in love af-fairs during the new year should be careful not to take any initiative while this configuration rules.

friends or relatives and especially ould all who have any financial or Business men are warned that Ju-piter is in a place most unfavorable commercial enterprises of every ing arrangements or entering into con-tracts today. Mercury is not promis-ing to those who would profit through writings of any sort.

There is a sign read as presaging duplicity and dissensions in legisla-tive bodies, and Congress has a lead-ing that foreshadows heated discus-sions and sensational scenes.

have many trials and financial losses in the coming year. Girls should be careful lest they be deceived.
Children born on this day may be very extravagant and too fond of luxury. These subjects of Capricorn are likely to be unlucky.

(Couriest 1923)

POLES CONFIDENT

allies for the creation of a united and independent Poland is voiced in an editorial declaration featuring the ever before. Today the 20,000,000 with-in the bounds of the old kingdom are widow of former Representative Harmer, of Pennsylvania, died Sun-day at the residence of her son-in-law, Howard Reeside, 1820 Nineteenth street northwest, where funeral serv-ices will be held Wednesday after-noon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be nusband, twelve years ago. She was member of the Congressional Club.

She was 33 years old.

Mrs. Harmer is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Reeside, and one son, Alfred C. Harmer, of Philadelphia.

and fairst for more.

This mystery drama gains much by virtue of the very superior acting of Annie Russell and her supporting company. Miss Russell gives the fincompany, miss russel gives the his ish performance to be expected of the real artist she is. In this instance she plays the part of a lovable old faker, a fraudulent spiritualistic trance medium. Summoned to a home While in Washington with her production Mrs. Marian Craig Wentworth, who wrote "Bonfires of Old Empires," was the guest of Dr. Sherwood-Waters, of "the Sorrento." ducts a seance in the dark, in which all of the guests take part. When the lights are turned on the inquisitive guest himself, occupying "the thirteenth chair," is found to have been murder ed in exactly the same manner in which his friends had been done to Every door and window of the root had been locked and it is absolute certain that no one has been able enter or leave during the progress aspect.

Those who read the stars foresee months of strain and stress for the United States, since all the influences tending toward peace seem to have been overcome by malefic forces.

This is a time in which to take steps to concerve all the stars for the grant of the drama in order not to spoil your pleasureable anticipations.

That Bayard Visitations.

to concerve all'energies as well as all material supplies, the seers declare.

Uranus is in a place read as likely to encourage false hopes and training the service of the public gues without saying. He did it with a supplies to the service of the public gues without saying. in "Within the Law," and he has done quite as well with "The Thir-teenth Chair." It is all mightily exciting, the dialogue is crisp, the characters skillfully drawn and everyone has some forceful acting

> Miss Russell gives the part of the dear old fraud who unravels the mur-der mystery a distinctive interpreta-tion, and De Witt C. Jennings also gives a capital performance as the inspector of police charged with the dis-covery of the murderer. Fred Eric tractions, including musical revue covery of the murderer. Fred Eric tractions, including musi-played Philip Mason effectively, but and patriotic melodrama. Percy Wenrich and pre and Ryder Keane as the young lovers, and Ryder Keane as the young lovers, expended Carrington and Robert Stance Beaumar, Belle D'Arcy, Judith Ives, Cliff Worman, Helen Freeburn, Kenneth Miner and George Schaeffer were also deserving of greatest praise.
>
> Percy Wenrich and pretty, dark-rest set of boily Connolly figure as head-liners, with a number of tuneful songs recently composed by Mr. Wenrich, which they "put over" in ust the right way. "Where Do We Go from Here" was, however, the hit of their act.
>
> Next in importance is "A Night-mark Revue" presented by Revuented and pretty, dark-rest songs recently composed by Mr. Wenrich and pretty songs recently composed by Mr. Wenrich an and Ryder Keane as the young lovers.

assemblage of delectable characters

A second view of Mr. Skinner's the North Atlantic. happy organ-grinder increases admiration for the artistry of the portrayal. It is not merely the fine finish of his playing in every detail of act and expression. What lifts the part out of the ordinary plane of good acting is the vivid romantic glow of the spirit that the actor maintains unfailingly, carrying Tony's message of good will and cheeriness matic grands. who is, however.

"hired girl" whose seeking for some simple pleasure brings upon her the wrath of Avalonian purity, but whose natural grace and beauty captivate

A COTERIE OF DESTINY'S CHILDREN. "I am also going to Harvey's mother, | tonight. He just telephoned to tell me.

little book, if possible. Her boy is I suspect that it is a scheme of Dick's really not to blame. He is the victim to have Jim persuade me to buy the

Miriam Miles and Denton Vane con-

edy of the higher class, "His Got All the Credit," featuring ward Earle and Agnes Ayres.

Areade Dance Auditorium

NOT FOR SHIPYARDS

Olive Tell.

Just how to "Step This Way" was shown the audience at Poli's Theater last night by dozens of pretty girls, members of the Poli Musical Comedy Players, in the musical comedy of that name.

The players were even better in the revue that will run this week than in the "Candy Shop." which closed Saturday night. "Step This Way." is one of the best known of musical comedies. It was a Shubert production and the inimitable Lew Fields added much to his glory with it.

The idea of Director Charles Sinclair to relieve the piece of all plot was carried out well and the audience was treated to a show full of songs, pretty girls, amusing and pretence was treated to a snow full of songs, pretty girls, amusing and pretty scenes and funny lines and up-to-the-minute songs and music.

The curtain rose in act one, on the "Universal," a department store in London, conducted on the American plan, where anything from a swall button or a knitting needle to "a swall button or a swall button o outton or a knitting needle to "a swel degree, buying several high-prioed gowns, to the person who wished a spool of thread were brought out and commingled with clever dancing and

The work of Lew Powers, as Henry

For the first holiday bill of 1918 Keith's has provided a well-bal-

Percy Wenrich and pretty, dark-

National — Otis Skinner in "Mister Fern and Mazion Davis. This revue is about as clever as these enter-Antonio Camaradonio, most angelic and yet most human of vagabonds, is in enlivened by Mr. Fern's unruly bere again, and with him the same assemblage of delectable about as badly as boots, which behave as badly as the Bolsheviki. Miss Davis' cos-Friday evening, Kiddies' Carnival and Saturday the popular week end dance LIGHTLESS NIGHTS less noticeable persons of the play, or at any rate not a sign of falling off is to be observed in the very high standard of acting. Capitano, the donkey, has possibly grown a triffe more meek and stolid, but every one else plays with undiminished zest and vigor. Mr. Skinner has added a pleasantly elaborated curtain speech, all in character, which if you go this week you must be sure to insist on having after the third act.

A second view of Mr. Skinner's happy organ-grinder increases admiration for the artistry of the por-

Theater bill this week

It is a distinct advance from a musi-cal standpoint and Emily Miller and John A. Crawford head the company are a big hit. Black and Tan sing and amuse with their gags and yodel-ing, while the Bickfords have a novel comedy sketch called "The Molly-coddle." oddle

Rayo

Lamps

coddle."
"The Marriage Speculations," a big Vitagraph production, featuring Mildred Manning and Walter MacDermott, has a story of real interest, while the Sunshine Comedy, "Damaged No Goods," is a genuine laughmaker, featuring narrow escapes. The Hearst Pathe News closes the bill.
The theater announces a slight advance in prices for holidays and Sunday, but not on other days, although ittitle book, if possible, Her boy; sreally not to blame. He is the victim of his parents' selfshaheas and vanity. Even under the circumstances under which I saw him I recomized his charm. I have not the slightest doubt of his loving Alice devotedly. She was just enough older than he to have awakened in him great admiration as well as passionate devotion.

It is nutlie, little book, to ruminate on the "might have been," but I can't help thinking of Alice as the wife of men. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the phinking of Alice as the wife of men. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the phinking of Alice as the wife of men. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the phinking of Alice as the wife of mon. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the phinking of Alice as the wife of mon. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the photomycent of the history and the player of mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the whole or work of mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the whole world of men. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the whole world of men. Molle, the suffering mother Chad, the artist and aeathetic, history, the fetorycend rake; Pat. the heat and minimate and the fetory and all the highest or the lowest position, and itselfiguation makes any photoplay in which the proper and the player of money and shows a part of exceptional and university of the patents of

ON THE BASIN

By LUCILE CAMERON.

You'd better have that little thins done right away, then, and come or American girl, supposedly married to of the crowd that's cutting figure an artist, but in reality the wife of a German secret agent. The climax comes with the defeat of the representatives of autocracy by the plucky girl just as word comes of America's declaration of war against Germany.

And don't the girls look pretty with their bright cheeks and sparking eyes night. They'd probably stay there all night if the police didn't insist on the ice being cleared at 10 p. m. And don't the girls look pretty with their bright cheeks and sparking eyes

The holiday program is completed by an interesting edition of the news pictorial and a Mutt and Jeff cartoon that is productive of almost continuous mirth. Beginning Thursday and continuing until Sunday, the major attraction at the Strand will be "The Mark of Cain." in which Mrs. Vernon, Castle and Antonio are the pictured stars. cinating miss wore two, a yellow for the cavalry and a blue one for Moore's Garden—"In the Balance."

Under the title of "In the Balance."

a film version of E. Phillips Oppenheim's widely read novel, "The Hillman," with Earle Williams in the stellar role of John Strangeway, constitutes the opening attraction of New Year's week at Moore's Garden The ed night in hear the control of the trench coat—pockets, invertigates week at Moore's Garden The ed night in back and everything. A Server Year's week at Moore's Garden The- ed plait in back and everything. A San Browne belt gave the finishin The story of the recluse who fell to this military costu in love with an actress whose car of tan Russia were worn, had stalled late at night at the door of his manor, high up in the hills. One little dark-eyed

One little dark-eyed maid, who lends itself readily to screen presen-tation, and, as visualized by Mr. Will-iams and charming Grace D'Armond, affords entertainment of a uniformity Her amazingiy clever suit of heavy interesting sense and plausible char-tan Jersey cloth boasted a plaited skirt acter. The action is tempered by the intelligent sense of values displayed a deep, flat, round collar and a belt by a competent cast, and the outdoor which went twice around and tied in by a competent cast, and the outdoor views give the photoplay a pictorial value that aids in making it one of the most satisfying productions in which Earle Williams has appeared in recent months.

which went twice around and the in which were adorned with heavy stitching. Nutria pompons finished the belt and collar. A hat of the jersey was made with a Tamoshanter which Earle Williams has appeared in recent months.

The narrative concerns the struggle in the heart of the hillman who attempts to balance his supposed duty to the traditions of his family against his love for the beautiful creature whom fate brought to his threshold, a round little chin. om fate brought to his threshhold. a round little chin.

tribute splendid portrayals to the completion of a cinema diversion of more than ordinary merit. A bit uncertain on her skates, A bit uncertain on her skates, our doing very nicely, considering that it was her first time on the ice, was a young daughter of a Southern Repre-sentative. Her sweet brown eyes and The program is compacted com-news pictorial and a well-acted comrosy cheeks were accentuated by a novel sweater and cap set knitted double of Hunter green wool in a style ginning Thursday, the feature of the bill will be "Her Sister." picturing that strongly suggested winter sports in Petrograd. The sweater was fastened down one side in Russian style with a high turned-down collar and heavy turned-back cuffs. About the bottom there was a border of purling. The passing of the holiday week does not indicate that the popularity of dancing is waning at the Arcade. New Year's eve was ushered in with appropriate setting. One of the largest crowds of the season enjoyed the dancing until 1 o'clock. This week Thursday will be ladies' night, Friday exemple, Viddles' (carrival and worn. So she wore a most charming the severe sport things that are being worn. So she wore a most charming and dainty set of scarf, muff and toque created out of velvet, chiffon and fur. The wide scarf and canteen muff were formed of alternate bands of shirred gray chiffon velvet and moleskin. A frill of gray chiffon finished the edg and frivolous matching tassels of sill ornamented the ends. Over a pair of anere will be no lightless nights in America's shipyards. Everyone of them is to be equipped to permit construction without cessation.

Special arrangements were made yesterday for the fuel to furnish this shipyard lighting, and the General Electric Company is working on the skill and a corresponding amount of "pep" was a blithe black-eyed lassic task of illuminating every shop and yard and way where America's great merchant marine is growing under intensive production.

Edward N. Huriey, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, announced last night that experts will inspect the establishments for the purpose of reporting on the most efficient methods of control of the corresponding band around the corresponding band around the skirt were of his skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the corresponding band around the corresponding band around the skirt were of his skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the skirt were of his control of the corresponding band around the corresponding band which terminated the corresponding band which the corresponding band which terminated the corresponding band whi skirt were of big rust red and white checks. A tasseled cap of the stocking-ette with a narrow rim of the stock-ingette was pulled well down over her dark curls. The real problem is labor. Under were before. The bounds of the old kingdom are at the bounds of the Prussian invader, but this has only served to bind them more closely to their national idealists as has every other persecution through the century and a quarter since the partition.

The editortal reviews at length the advances in the Polish nationalism movement during the past year.

The Dilaw of Marc could not be bet
Marc could not be bet
Marc could not be bet
maintains unitation.

Robert Harrison as Joe, the demented assistant to the organ man, still boasts with ludicrous pride of the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the latter part of the act he dances again a more pressing one under the latter part of the latt get these trying days was a pink-cheeked, blue-eyed little maid, who A meeting of the Citizens' Asso-ciation of Chevy Chase is to be held simply flocked. Her skating dress of Office

Plenty of Light

Where You Want It

Buy a lamp that is built to give mellow flickerless light-a lamp that can be lighted as

RAYO LAMPS

are not expensive but you can't buy better lamps at any price. Simple and artistic in design, easy to keep clean and re-wick, they give plenty

It will pay to ask for Rayo

Lamps by name. If your local dealer does not carry them

write to our nearest station. Aladdin Security Oil guarantees best results from lamps,

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

stoves and heaters.

of light where you want it.

easily as a gas jet.

a little pompon of the fur was perci ed squarely in the middle of the crown

AMUSEMENTS.

OTIS SKINNER "MISTER ANTONIO"

MATIONAL-Week of JAN.7

Coming to Washington In-tact from Its Overwhelming

Just as a stitch in time saves nine, so will a trip to the box office in advance often secure the choice seat that afterward you may be unable to the continue of the continue

The Original Company of 80 In the Long New York
Run, Including

Wilds Benrett,
Juliette Dey,
Viola Cain,
Marjorie Bentley,
J. Clarence Harvey,

Seat Sale for This Extraor-dinary Attraction Opens Thursday.

THE 13th CHAIR Next Week-"YOU'RE IN'LOVE

Next Sunday Night-Seats Thursday J. B. Pond Lyceum Bureau Present

IAN HAY

Author of "The Eirst Hundred Thousand," "Getting Together." "All In H." in a New Illustrated Lecture on the War on and and Sea, "CARRYING ON

5 Sunday Evgs. Beg. Jan. 13-14

COURSE TICKETS $4.00. 83.00 This

NEW NATIONAL SUNDAY EVENING, JANUARY 6 CAPTAIN DAVID

DAVID
FALLON
In His Vivid Illustrates War Lecture,
FIGHTING FIGHTING

B. F. KEITH'S EVERY

Hassard Short & Co. "The Ruby"
"The Color Gems." Lydell & Higgins, Pen & Davis, Benee Florigny, The Breens, Etc.
NEXT-Theodore Kosloff, L. R. Ballet, Etc.

Fields, "STEP THIS WAY" Prices: 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. The Theater Pays the War Tar

TODAY—WEDNESDAY EARLE WILLIAMS PLAZA TODAY.

WILLIAMFARNUM in "THE CONQUERO

NOW PLAYING DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

in "A Modern Musketeer."

14th St. and Park Rd.

Every Evening Incomparable Music.

Popular Prices.

SPECIAL-EXTRA MIDNIGHT MATINEE TONIGHT.

Herbert Shipman and Mrs. William Disston, who are their guests. Mrs. Disston will leave Washington Wednesday for Florids, but Mrs. Shipman will remain in town over Miss Harriet G. Barton, daughter of Col. Frank A. Barton, U. S. army, and Mrs. Barton, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gans, of the Iowa Apartments, Thirteenth and O streets.

Tuesday, January 1, 1918. The first day of the year has a planetary direction most sinister and threatening. Uranus, Venus, the Sun. Mercury and Jupiter are all in evil and heavy losses.

Care should be taken to avoid maksions and sensational scenes.

Persons whose birthdate it is may

OF UNITED NATION

in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. Harmer was prominent in so-cial circles in Washington, having re-sided here since the death of her phy is made to shine, they are all ut-terly real and may be verified in a day's run out of Washington by any motorist. There remains June Ramsey, the ringing.

The entire cast was good and deserve praise for their work. Miss Lillian Grosman, as "Ninette," Miss Eulaile Young and Clarence Lydston, Mrs. Schniff, Miss Louise Mink and of the drama in true and pleasureable anticipations.

That Bayard Vieller knows how to score his points, develop his situations in his story and the story a Schniff, the part made famous by Lew Fields when the comedy first was produced, surprised his friends, who expected much of him. His scenes with Miss Sarah Edwards, as Mrs. Henry Schniff, were very good, and both added many to their friends in Washington.

assemblage of delectable characters that made a joy of the first visit of tumes are strikingly unique.

Booth Tarkington's comedy in Washington a year ago. If there are any changes in the cast they are in the less noticeable persons of the play, of the wireless. An American boy

A pretentious opera comique in tab-loid, entitled, "An Arabian Night," George Choos' latest popular vaude-ville production, headlines the Cosmos simple pleasure brings wrath of Avalonian purity, but ware natural grace and beauty captivate the poetic soul of the wandering Tony, s Miss Eleanor Woodruff still plays this part, and her work is one of the chief delights of the plece.

er
"Mister Antonio" is one of the most meritorious entertainments now trayeling, rich in meaning, bright with laughter with a monlogue as "The Man from Nowhere." and Dorothy Kenton shows herself to be a genuine artist with the banjo on which she plays not only classic, but catchy poplays not only classic, but catchy popl

(New Jersey)
BALTIMORE, MD.
ton, D. C. Charlo orfolk, Va. Charleston, W. Va. Charleston, S. C. diku

Sounds simple, doesn't it? But y

ATIONAL WEB. MATS. SA

Conquest of New York!

Belasco-- Tonight, # 20-80: to $2.60.

MAJ. IAN HAY BEFTH

Our Egypt-Our Hawail-Our West

THROUGH HELL Prices, 50c to $2.00. Souts on Sale at Box

Three Shows—2:15. 5:15. —Box Tan's Bay.
Other Days an Causi.

Dolly Connolly and Four Seases
Four Seemes
U. S. Battle
Fleet In Action.

DOLI'S Mat It's the Talk of the Town. Poli Musical Comedy Players

MATS. STRAND EVES. MME. PETROVA DAUGREER OF DESTINY." MATS. GARDEN EVES. in "IN THE BALANCE."

LOEW'S COLUMBIA Continuous 10:20 A. M. to 11 P. M. Morn., Aft., 10c, 15c, Nights, 10c, 15c, 25c.

ARCADE

Select Dancing